NOTICE

The personal use of campaign funds is prohibited.² The use of campaign funds must be related to a political campaign or the holding of a public office or party position. However, campaign funds may be used to reimburse a candidate for expenses related to his campaign or office, to pay taxes on the interest earned on campaign funds or replace articles lost, stolen, or damaged in connection with a campaign.

Excess campaign funds may be returned to contributors on a pro rata basis, given as a charitable contribution provided in 26 USC 170(c), given to a charitable organization as defined in 26 USC 501(c)(3), expended in support or opposition to a proposition, political party, or candidacy of any person, or maintained in a segregated fund for future political campaigns or activity related to preparing for future candidacy to elective office.

²The prohibition on the personal use of campaign funds does not apply to campaign funds received prior to July 18, 1985
